Can my student work at their own pace?

- Due to the nature of the program, 17 online classes will need to be completed no later than July 26th. Students will have a minimum weekly requirement in order to complete the class on time, but are welcome to work ahead. As long as the weekly requirement is met, students may work at their own pace.

Will there be additional help available?

- All classes will be assigned a proctor who will be available online and at the school. This gives students accountability and a teacher that can help them if they need additional clarification about a given topic.

Do these classes count on my transcript?

- Yes. All 17 classes will be graded and recorded exactly as they are in the regular school year.

How will this class affect my child's fall schedule?

- Participants in the 17 online program will meet with their counselor to determine the best options for the fall schedule. Since the type of classes offered varies dramatically each student will need to schedule a time to work through their fall schedule with their counselor.
