Dress Code

The RBCS Guidelines for Student Behavior (see your RBCS FAMILY MANUAL) details the standards for behavior that RBCS desires students to adhere to as they mature toward the image of Christ and gives the philosophy of the dress standards. FINAL AUTHORITIES for dress code interpretation are Mrs. D. Bowers, Crestview Campus Principal, Mr. T. Clymer, Academy Principal, and Mrs. P. Seeling, Niceville Elementary Principal.

1. General appearance:

- Student appearance should enhance a Christian's testimony of a life adhering to Biblical principles rather than worldly standards. Appropriateness, cleanliness and neatness of appearance are related to health, general social acceptance, good habit building, and the principle of deference (limiting freedom in order not to offend the wishes of those in authority).
- Student's hair should be neatly styled and clean. Boy's hair should be tapered, above the middle of the ear, not obscuring the eyebrows and not hanging below the collar in the back. Extremes in hairstyles that call undue attention, such as shaving above the ears, cutting designs into the hair, and unnatural colors will not be permitted. Boys must be clean-shaven. Boys' sideburns cannot extend past the middle of the ear. Junior and senior males may grow facial hair and sideburns, but they must be neat and trimmed.
- Excessive make-up is not permitted in the Academy. No makeup is permitted in the elementary.
- Body piercings are limited to girls' ears.
- No visible tattoos.

2. Students must dress modestly:

- Students will wear properly fitting clothing at all times. No tight or form fitting, sagging, or excessively baggy clothing may be worn.
- Blouses that reveal cleavage or midriff are not permitted.
- Skirts and shorts will be no more than 3 inches above the knee.
- Uniform shirts must be of school colors (white, gray, royal, navy, black, or the approved shirts as seen on Lands' End and French Toast.) and have an RBCS logo in the upper left "pocket" area.
